ADULT CLASSES OF
SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO HOLD RALLY

Sunday School Committee Arranges
Special Meeting for Adult Classes
On Next Wednesday Evening.

The Executive committee of the Mason County Sunday School Association at a special meeting last evening at the home of Miss Ella Wallace, arranged for the big "booster" meeting for adult Bible classes. The time set for this meeting is next Wednesday evening, September 29th. The place is the First Presbyterian church. The full program will be published as soon as all who are to take part are notified and signify their willingness to help make the meeting a success.

Those who are invited to this meeting are the members of all adult Bible classes, men or women, and the officers and teachers of every school in city and county. Members of country schools are especially urged to be in attendance as the meeting will mean much in encouragement and inspiration to their work. The first half hour of the meeting from 7:30 till 8 will be taken up in getting better acquainted. From 8 till 9 a program of music, reports from each adult class, a round table on best methods for adult class work, and a rousing speech on "Co-operation With the City, County and State Sunday School Association." It is planned to send a special messenger—a good, live speaker—to each city school Sunday morning to arouse interest in the meeting. Superintendents of schools are asked to be on the lookout for this messenger and allow him to give his message at once so that he may visit all schools during the school hour.

The social committee will serve a light lunch during the social hour, which is expected to be one of the most pleasing parts of the meeting. As this is the first meeting of the sort planned by the county committee they are exceedingly anxious that it be a success. And if it is they give this assurance that others will follow and that this phase of the Sunday school work will be given something really worth while during the coming months.

OHIO MASON PLEASED WITH OUR BOYS' BAND

"Mighty Proud of the Boys and Their Fine Music," Says Chairman of Committee in Letter.

Col. J. B. Russell, manager of the Boys' Band has just received this letter from the chairman of the committee on arrangements of the Alliance, Ohio, Knights Templar, for whom the local band furnished music at the Conclave.

My Dear Mr. Russell:

As chairman of the committee on arrangements for the Knights Templar Conclave at Cincinnati I wish to express to you and the members of your "Boys' Band" the great appreciation for the fine service we had during this conclave. This service was the subject of much favorable comment from many of our Knights and ladies, and we were certainly mighty proud of the boys and the fine music they delivered and especially under adverse circumstances due to the heavy downpour of rain.

We were all very anxious concerning the boys after they received their soaking, but had every assurance that they were receiving the proper care and attention which they deserved from you as their manager.

Our Knights were somewhat jealous of the applause and attention shown your band boys by the thousands and thousands of people which lined the streets during the parade, but I can only say that it was all fully deserved by the boys.

If at any time you desire our opinion on your Boys Band at Maysville do not hesitate to write the undersigned.

Again thanking you and expressing our appreciation, I am, yours very truly,
S. D. SCRANTON, Chairman
Committee of Arrangements.

FAIR PROMOTION FUND GROWING STEADILY.

It was announced this afternoon that the Corn and Tobacco Fair promotion fund had grown to $925 without effort today and that it was expected that the one thousand dollar fund would be reached before the meeting of the Executive committee at the Chamber of Commerce this evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Oral James, Mrs. Duke White, Mrs. W. S. Peters, Miss Grace Bierbow, and Mrs. J. H. Richardson, of this city, and Miss Stella Irvine, of Toledo, left this morning to spend the day at the Methodist conference at Augusta.

COMMITTEE LIKELY TO RECOMMEND THE PIGGERY SYSTEMS

Special Committee On Garbage Collection and Disposal Finds Incinerator System Is Not Working Smoothly.

Mayor Thomas M. Russell and Councilmen Smith, Ellett and Devine have returned from a motor trip through central Kentucky where they made investigations into the system of garbage collection and disposal in those cities and from whom they have learned on their inspection trip, they hope to work out a plan for the city of Maysville which they will likely recommend at the next meeting of City Council.

The committee learned that the incinerator system in the city of Lexington is not proving satisfactory and give it as their opinion that such an expensive system as this could not prove satisfactory and economical for a city the size of Maysville. They were very much taken with the piggy system as it is being used in Louisville and they are of the opinion that this would prove the most successful and economical system for Maysville.

The all important thing in this system is to get a company, such as is collecting the garbage in Louisville, to become interested in the Maysville proposition. Under this plan a company purchases from the city the right or franchise to collect garbage in the city at a stipulated fee—which is always very small—and the garbage is then hauled to a farm near the city where the wet garbage is fed to hogs and the dry trash is sorted and disposed of by the while all of the rags and paper is sold.

An effort will be made, it is understood, to interest the concern now under contract with Louisville and Owensboro between now and the next meeting of city council when it is hoped a system will be worked out in such a manner as to be presented in an intelligible manner.

FALL OPENING.

Mrs. S. Arn will have her full millinery opening on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The latest creations in fall hats will be shown. All are invited.

CARNIVAL ATTRACTS MANY.

There was a very large crowd at the Carnival Wednesday evening and the shows and concessions seemed to be doing a very good business. A band made up of some of the members of the Maysville Boys' band, livened things considerably.

DAMMING LIMESTONE CREEK.

The C. & O. railroad company is building a dam in Limestone street under their railroad bridge which will raise the bed of the creek above the foundations of their bridge. The creek was undermining the foundations and this step was necessary.

WIFE ASKS DIVORCE.

In the Mason Circuit Court this afternoon Mrs. Bettie S. Hays filed suit asking a divorce from her husband, John Hays. The wife states that they were married in this county in 1894 and lived continuously together as man and wife until December 21, 1913, when without fault on her part, the husband abandoned her and has since that time refused to live with her. She asks for a divorce, alimony and costs.

REGISTRATION TO BE HELD OCTOBER FIFTH.

Tuesday, October fifth — one week from next Tuesday, is regular registration day and on that day every voter in the city of Maysville who expects to vote for President in the November election must register and obtain a registration certificate. This includes the women voters. Every woman must register just as the men are required to do.

WILL IS PROBATED.

In the Mason County Court this afternoon a paper dated September 21, 1903, and purporting to be the last will of Charles Parry, deceased, was filed. The signature to the paper was proven by J. N. Kohoe and John L. Whitaker and it was admitted to probate. By the terms of the will the entire estate is bequeathed to his wife, Mrs. Maggie L. Parry, who qualified as executrix without surety on bond, as was requested.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION WORKERS

Maysville and Mason County Sunday School Workers Interested In State Convention.

The coming State Sunday School convention to be held in Highland Presbyterian church, Louisville, promises to be the greatest convention ever held by the State Association of Kentucky.

Much interest is taken by many of our local people in this convention and it is hoped that everyone who can so arrange may attend. The program is made up of men and women who are real leaders. The President of Centre College, the Dean of Christ Church Cathedral of Louisville, the International Superintendent of Evangelical have some stirring messages for the Sunday school workers of Kentucky. Dr. Paul Higby will have four Bible study periods. Prof. Hollingshead will speak a number of times. Miss Fraymire will speak on "Americanization and Religious Education."

And so the program goes. It will be beneficial of the best. Every Sunday school worker is invited. Every Sunday school should send delegates. The expenses will not be heavy. The entertainment committee will secure homes for the registered delegates at a rate of $1 for night's lodging and breakfast. Lunch and dinner may be had for fifty cents each. $10 to $15 will cover expenses outside of railroad fare. Convention theme, "A Greater and Better Kentucky." Dr. Geo. A. Joplin, State Secretary, Louisville, will gladly furnish any information desired on application.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TO SPEAK HERE ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

Hon. Charles L. Dawson Will Speak to Voters on the Issues of the Political Campaign at Court House Next Monday.

The first political speech of the present campaign will be made by Hon. Charles L. Dawson, Attorney-General of the State of Kentucky at the court house here on next Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock and the public is cordially invited to attend.

General Dawson is a very interesting speaker and is a close student of politics. He will speak in the interest of the Republican candidates for President, Senator and Congress and it is hoped that those interested in matters political will attend. A special invitation is extended to the women of the county to hear General Dawson.

Women of Mason county for the first time will exercise the right of franchise at the coming November election and they owe it to themselves to become informed on the issues of the day.

WOMEN THE "X" OF POLITICS

The opportunities for public welfare movements with the women voting cannot be overestimated, says the National Welfare Union commenting on the ratification of suffrage by Connecticut. They can now make their wishes register in no uncertain terms. The women are for the best things for the home. That means a better country. With the vote they can now put the exclamation point after their wishes and make the professional politicians take notice. They registered heavily in Maine the other day and every politician has his ear to the ground.

For example, improvement of American home life through education of the women of the United States in household economy and welfare is the great task to which the General Federation of Women's Clubs, representing 2,500,000 women has set itself, the National Welfare Union points out. This purpose is outlined at the meeting of the national board of directors of the organization. In speaking of the work of the federation Mrs. Thos. G. Winter, of Minneapolis, president, said:

"As club women there is nothing too great for us to realize. We are a bi-partisan group. Some of us are Democrats and some of us are Republicans. But we all want clean living, clean thinking, clean administration, clean policies. We shall have to perform politically through our party affiliations. But things that unite us are stronger and deeper than the things that separate us. To unite the women of all parties and all ways of thinking in common patriotic purposes—this is our function. It makes the reason for our being seem greater than ever."

"I think we are in danger of thinking of political affairs as though they meant chiefly great national issues. But politics, like charity, should begin at home."

"No agency in America can have greater influence than this federation of ours. Here is non partisanship. Here we are absolutely one. I hope that the more than 2,000,000 members of our federation will push together, with all our new political power, for the good of America and American womanhood and manhood."

The theorist on world affairs and on other things will at once make over his formula and give consideration of the algebraic "X" in politics.

HARDING AND HIS SPEECH ON JAPAN.

Senator Harding has courageously taken hold of the horns of a raging bull as far as the West is concerned in telling where he stands on the Japanese immigration proposition, says the National Welfare Union of Washington. The question must be dealt with and that speedily.

A western view of the question is found in the Capital News of Boise, Idaho, which says: "If Japan wishes to read and follow the hand writing on the wall, she will restrict emigration and carry on at home a campaign to warn Japanese subjects not to go to Pacific coast states where there is unfriendly sentiment. The Japanese can do very well at home and that being the case they should remain within their own country."

This attitude seems to be the echo of the editorial opinion of most of the Pacific Coast as the National Welfare Union finds it on the editorial pages.

An eastern endorsement of Mr. Harding's view is found in the Washington Star which says: "Mr. Harding says the question is not that of inferiority, superiority or inequality, but that of assimilability. We cannot assimilate the Japanese, and hence do not desire them in numbers in this country." On that proposition he sympathizes with the stand taken by the people of the Pacific coast, the Californians in the lead."

STAND ON PEACE

Denies Democratic Platform Charge
That He Was Inconsistent—Misrepresented, He Says.

Coneord, N. H.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, speaking here before the Merrimac County Republican Club, accuses the Democratic party of "unlimited misrepresentation of well known facts" in its platform reference to alleged inconsistencies in his attitude on the making of peace with Germany.

"I am charged with inconsistency," said Senator Lodge, "because in an address I disapproved of deserting our allies and making a separate peace in the midst of the war, and yet was willing to make a separate peace with Germany two years and a half after that speech was made, and when all our allies had left me and had themselves made peace with Germany. I was right on both occasions and entirely consistent."

"I think I am safe in saying," he continued, "that never before has the declaration of the principles of a great national party carried an attack on any individual member of the opposite party. But the Democrats at San Francisco selected me by name for a subject of attack in an effort apparently to prove that I had been inconsistent.

"What they did exactly was this: They quoted from what they called an article of mine which they said appeared in the Forum magazine of December, 1918, in which I had denounced any attempt on the part of the United States to make a separate peace with Germany at that time. On the publication of this statement in the Democratic platform many of the leading newspapers of the country immediately pointed out that the article in question was not published in the Forum of December, 1918, but appeared in the Forum of June, 1918—that is, appeared while the war was at its height and before the great advance which resulted in victory.

The falsehood was so flagrant that the Democrats admitted it themselves and changed the date of the statement several weeks later in the official publication of their platform to June, 1918. This, of course, destroyed the main point of the attack and got rid of the most obvious lie, but it still remained with a large burden of falsehood upon it, because in the article as published by the Forum in June, 1918, there was a note appended saying that this article was an address delivered by me before the Massachusetts Historical Society and was printed by them with the permission of the society. This note the author of the statement in the Democratic platform must have seen if he had looked at the copy of the Forum from which he professed to quote. As a matter of fact, I delivered the address printed in the Forum of June, 1918, on the 11th of October, 1917, and it was printed in the October number of the Proceedings of the Historical Society, only six months after our declaration of war and when the war was, of course, still raging.

"At that time voices were heard, not only here but elsewhere, suggesting that United States should make a separate peace. A separate peace then would have meant the desertion of our allies in the midst of war. What I then said in October, 1917, was right, and I am glad that I said it, and I am glad that my address was reprinted, and I have not a word of what I said to change or withdraw.

"I know that I was absolutely right in voting for the Knox resolution. All the other countries had made peace with Germany. We had declined to ratify the Treaty of Versailles on account of the covenant of the League of Nations, except with reservation which would have protected the United States. But all our allies had ratified the treaty of peace in May, 1920, and it was then our duty, as it is our duty now, to put an end to the technical state of war between the United States and Germany. It is wholly technical, and it is not a little difficult to establish that even a technical state of war exists."

Rev. James L. Barton, who celebrates his 65th birthday today, has served for many years as secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. He is a Vermont, was educated at Middlebury College and at Hartford Theological Seminary and went to Turkey in 1855 as missionary stationed at Harpoot. In the course of time he became professor in the missionary college, and later its president. In 1894, because of his proved administrative ability and his general knowledge of social and political conditions in the Near East, he was summoned home to join the secretarial staff of the American Board. In his position he has come to have much influence with the churches, with educators throughout America, and with Washington officials charged with care of American interests in Turkey.

SOME MEN WHO WOULD DARE TO DIFFER WITH WILSON-COX LEAGUE

The question in the minds of Americans who believe in the men who made this country the great Republic that it is today, is this:

Is Woodrow Wilson a wiser man than George Washington and Abraham Lincoln and James Monroe and all the illustrious leaders of our country's past?

It is true that Woodrow Wilson already has tried to force his every view, his every idea or thought, upon the American people. It is true that he has made up his own mind about internal and international policies without ever consulting the American people or their representatives in Congress.

But if Woodrow Wilson DOES think that the American people are not to be counted as material when he attempts to shape this country's policies, he will have to work hard to convince them that the policies of Washington and Lincoln are not acceptable in this day. Washington said in his time:

FRANKLIN D. HAS NO CHANCE WITH WOMEN

Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was placed upon the Democratic ticket to neutralize the unpleasant impression sure to be made upon American women by a Presidential candidate selected by the French Lick oligarchy, has startled the country by a nautical confession that destroys all chance the Democrats may have had of winning the woman vote. Briefly, he states that President Wilson "put it over" Lloyd George by disguising or concealing the fact that in the League of Nations the United States could always out-vote England by controlling the votes of the Central and South American Republics.

Roosevelt points out that Uncle Sam, as Big Brother to Hayti, Pan-

"Separated as we are by a world of water from other nations, if we are wise we shall surely avoid being drawn into the labyrinth of their politics and involved in their destructive wars."

John Adams said: "We ought not to involve ourselves in the political system of Europe, but keep ourselves always distinct and separate from it."

Jefferson said: "Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations, entangling alliances with none."

James Madison: "A steady regard for the true interests of the United States equally avoids an abandonment of their just demands and a connection of their fortunes with the systems of other powers."

Lincoln: " * * * We have forbore from taking part in any controversy between foreign states and between parties or factions in such states. We have left to every nation the exclusive conduct and management of its own affairs."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was placed upon the Democratic ticket to neutralize the unpleasant impression sure to be made upon American women by a Presidential candidate selected by the French Lick oligarchy, has startled the country by a nautical confession that destroys all chance the Democrats may have had of winning the woman vote. Briefly, he states that President Wilson "put it over" Lloyd George by disguising or concealing the fact that in the League of Nations the United States could always out-vote England by controlling the votes of the Central and South American Republics.

Roosevelt points out that Uncle Sam, as Big Brother to Hayti, Panama, Cuba, and other republics to the South of us gave John Bull a good trick and has reason to feel pleased with himself as a clever and successful swindler.

The Democracy is hardly to be congratulated upon the choice it made of a full to its ticket. If F. D. Roosevelt's mission as a candidate was to attract the women of this country to his party, he seems likely to become the greatest failure at which Boss Murphy ever whined.

Four years ago a large number of our aristocratic American women were drawn toward Wilson through motives which did them credit, despite the fact that soon after Election Day their trust was betrayed. But there is not the slightest possibility that these same women will this year be attracted by the Democratic ticket.

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Maysville Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is of questionable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficacy of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Maysville citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Iren P. Fleming, constable of Maysville Co., 217 E. Lee St., Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or two of Doan's Kidney Pills has never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Fleming had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mrs. N. Y.

James Madison: "A steady regard for the true interests of the United States equally avoids an abandonment of their just demands and a connection of their fortunes with the systems of other powers."

Lincoln: " * * * We have forbore from taking part in any controversy between foreign states and between parties or factions in such states. We have left to every nation the exclusive conduct and management of its own affairs."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was placed upon the Democratic ticket to neutralize the unpleasant impression sure to be made upon American women by a Presidential candidate selected by the French Lick oligarchy, has startled the country by a nautical confession that destroys all chance the Democrats may have had of winning the woman vote. Briefly, he states that President Wilson "put it over" Lloyd George by disguising or concealing the fact that in the League of Nations the United States could always out-vote England by controlling the votes of the Central and South American Republics.

Roosevelt points out that Uncle Sam, as Big Brother to Hayti, Panama, Cuba, and other republics to the South of us gave John Bull a good trick and has reason to feel pleased with himself as a clever and successful swindler.

The Democracy is hardly to be congratulated upon the choice it made of a full to its ticket. If F. D. Roosevelt's mission as a candidate was to attract the women of this country to his party, he seems likely to become the greatest failure at which Boss Murphy ever whined.

Four years ago a large number of our aristocratic American women were drawn toward Wilson through motives which did them credit, despite the fact that soon after Election Day their trust was betrayed. But there is not the slightest possibility that these same women will this year be attracted by the Democratic ticket.

MISS BUTCHER LEADS IN FIRST COUNT OF VOTES

American Legion's Popularity Contest Is Growing in Interest Daily — Candidates are Well Bunched.

The first count of the votes in the American Legion's popularity contest was held this afternoon at the Maysville Water Company's office in West Second street in the presence of John Murphy, Hugh C. Power, Henry E. Pogue, W. H. Cole and a representative of the carnival company.

Miss Bernice Butcher is leading in the first count with 812 votes to her credit while close behind her quite a number of other popular young ladies are closely grouped. In the future the vote will be counted and announced each day. Interest in the contest is growing steadily as the candidates are nearing the post. This afternoon's result follows:

Bernice Butcher, 812 votes; Marguerite Pogue, 746 votes; Bona Fitzgerald, 728; Beulah Ginn, 723; Virginia Watkins, 714; Georgia Hornbeck, 621; Anna Belle Hall, 619; Jewell Allison, 615; Mervil Wilson, 520; Louise Hunsicker, 410; Bess Bell, 405; Rita Ross, 402; Elizabeth Stacey, 402; Addie Boyd, 302; Margaret Smith, 287; Gertrude Downey, 262; Mary Ford French, 232.

The Len Kidder farm containing 230 acres, formerly owned by the late C. B. Pearce, located about 1½ miles from Bradyville, Adams county, Ohio, will be sold at public sale on Thursday, September 23rd.

GOING TO CINCINNATI.

Mr. Sam McNutt, salesman at the Maysville Suit and Dry Goods Company, has resigned to accept a similar position with "The Big Store" in Cincinnati. Mr. McNutt's leaving Maysville will mean another vacancy in City Council from the Fourth ward.

BIG CROWDS HEAR SPEAKERS IN EASTERN KENTUCKY

Mrs. South, Mr. Ernst and Congressman Robison Address Large Crowd at Pineville and Barboursville.

Pineville, Ky., Sept. 22. — In spite of the counter attraction of the Bible Chautauqua in session here, a large audience last night greeted three noted speakers at the first local Republican rally of the campaign.

Mrs. Christine Bradley South, daughter of the late Senator William O. Bradley; Richard Ernst, Republican nominee for United States senator, and Congressman J. M. Robison were accorded ovations and each of them delivered addresses that found hearty response.

County Attorney Moss presided and introduced Mrs. W. T. Davis, wife of the Circuit Judge in this district, who in turn presented Mrs. South.

Mrs. South's presence here was unexpected. She arrived but a short time before the meeting opened. She delivered a brief but most eloquent talk, in which she made an urgent appeal to the women of Eastern Kentucky to perform the patriotic duty of voting. She declared that upon the votes of the women depends the result in Kentucky and that if they avail themselves of the right of the suffrage so long fought for, the old Bluegrass state will return an overwhelming majority for Harding and Ernst. She warned the mothers, especially of the grave dangers involved in the League of Nations as it stands, telling them that its adoption without reservations might mean the sacrifice of their sons in wars into which the United States would be forced, and which the nation could not be concerned. She referred to Mr. Ernst as one of the men who had the courage to expose the cause of women in their fight for the elective franchise, when such a stand was everywhere deemed the shortest route to political elimination.

County Attorney Reed Patterson introduced Mr. Ernst, saying in part: "Under the provisions of the league the United States will, in the future, be represented in the assembly by not more than three representatives and at meetings of the council by one representative. The council is the great executive body of the league. When war is to be declared by the council, war which may involve the lives of thousands of our citizens and billions from our treasury, who shall speak for the United States? Are we going to give power and authority to any one man, no matter how learned or patriotic he might be, to take that step which shall plunge our country into war and which may endanger our standing as a nation? Shall that power be given to any one man or to any three men, no matter who they may be? Yet, such are the provisions of the League of Nations."

PRAYER MEETING TONIGHT.

Regular mid-week prayer service will be held at the First Baptist church this evening at 7 o'clock, led by the pastor, Rev. John A. Davis. A study of the book of Acts is being made at these mid-week services which is proving very interesting. The public is cordially invited.

LOCAL MERCHANT BUYS WINCHESTER STORE.

Mr. John Fansler of the Ryder Paint Store has purchased the entire stock of the Royal Paint and Wall Paper store at Winchester and this stock will be moved to Maysville at once. A fine lot of wall paper, paints, and the like, is included in the large stock.
